BEING CHRISTIAN: Baptism, Bible, Eucharist, Prayer

By: Rowan Williams - A fresh look at Christian essentials by one of the world's greatest living theologians and a former Archbishop of Canterbury. A simple, beautifully written book which explores the four basic components of the Christian life: baptism, Bible, Eucharist, and prayer. Despite huge differences in Christian thinking and practice both today and in past centuries, he says, these main elements have remained constant and indispensable for the majority of those who call themselves Christians.

In accessible, pastoral terms Williams discusses the meaning and practice of baptism, the Bible, the Eucharist, and prayer, inviting readers to really think through the Christian faith and how to live it out. Questions for reflection and discussion at the end of each chapter help readers to dig deeper and apply Williams's insights to their own lives.

CHRISTIANITY 101

Cheer up! You don't have to have thousand-dollar vocabulary in order to grasp the priceless basics of Christianity. Christianity 101 bridges the gap between biblical scholarship and people who want to understand the Christian faith. This book presents eight basic doctrines of Christianity in clear, simple language that gives seasoned Christians a fresh understanding of the Bible and its teachings and puts new Christians on familiar terms with Christian doctrine. Author, Gilbert Bilezikian does not shape his analysis of these doctrines in the worn-out, rationalistic categories of older systematic theologies, but in vibrant, dynamic language designed to communicate biblical truths to contemporary believers. (Gilbert Bilezikian, ThD, Boston University, is a professor emeritus of Wheaton College, a charter member and elder of Willow Creek Community Church in South Barrington, Illinois)

JOURNEY: People of God on the Way

All Christians are on a journey, somewhere along the way of coming better to understand God and the ways of God in the hearts of believers, the church and the world. Our starting points are varied, as is our progress along the way. Our hope, and even our experience, is that study of the kind that Journey offers will nudge and encourage us as we travel.

Dr. Elmer Joy, formerly professor of New Testament studies, developed and wrote this adult education curriculum from a distinctly Anglican perspective during his tenure as Christian Formation Coordinator for the Diocese of New Westminster in 2002/2003. His work has been extended by the Rev. Ron Wickens. The materials are intended to deepen one's relationship with God in Christ, encourage honest inquiry, grow in our understanding of our Anglican community, and to prepare the people of God for healthy service in the church and in the world. Participants typically read materials in advance of the group session. Suitable for formal, large group settings and in small home-studies.

FAITH PICTURES: a fresh way to talk about things that matter

Faith Pictures is a short course designed to help Christians talk naturally to friends, neighbours and colleagues about what they believe. The heart of the course is about helping people to identify a single picture or image that embodies something of their faith. This is because the kinds of communication which best stick in the mind are concrete and rooted in story. It is for people of any Christian tradition and none. It aims to appeal to people who may find in-depth Bible study and theology of mission daunting.

The course aims to be accessible and light-hearted, without jargon or inflexible methods. It has a number of emphases not always found in faith-sharing courses. These include the avoidance of one-size-fits-all models and the importance of honesty and listening. Each session contains a short video and encourages discussion in pairs and as a whole group. (There is also a guideline for leading a small group.) Promotional resources are available, including posters, flyers and postcards.

LIVING FAITH

Living Faith draws on the superb scholarship of Tom Wright to explore the Biblical story, Christian history and doctrine. For those wanting a good introduction to, or a reminder of these essentials, this is a very helpful resource. The material is presented in the style of a university tutorial. The 10-part course is aimed at Christians new or established. It would be very useful as a follow up tool for an individual or a group that wants to know more about the Bible, having had their appetite whetted by an Alpha course. The key questions of 'Who is Jesus?' and 'What does it mean to follow him?' are addressed throughout. The scholarship is both deep and broad.

Prior to each session participants are asked to read a chapter in the book (five or six pages). Video teaching includes a superb introduction of the topic by Tom Wright, followed by dialogue between Bishop Tom, Marilyn Sharpe and Joel Quie. (N.T. Wright is the former Anglican Bishop of Durham, author and scholar; Joel Quie is a Lutheran pastor from Eden Prairie, Minnesota; Marilyn Sharpe is a director with the Youth and Family Institute in Bloomington, Minnesota.)
