

Functions Of A Vision

“Church Leadership” Lovett H. Weems, Jr

If there is clarity about where a church is going then it is easier to set priorities and make decisions.

Vision Invites and Draws Others

A vision is a picture of a preferred future that by its appeal draws people who bring energy and commitment to the effort.

Vision Unites

A vision has the power to unite people in corporate action, by providing a powerful and compelling interpretation of the future.

Vision Energizes

A vision shows how individual labors within a church contribute to something more important than the sum of the parts.

Vision Focuses Priorities

A vision keeps people focused on what they together have agreed they are about

Vision Sets The Standard

A vision represents a commitment, larger than any one individual or group, to which we all give our loyalty.

Vision Raises Sights

A vision sets a standard of high goals and expectation
