

Come to the Well (Common Cup Company)

Refrain: Come to the well, come to the waters,
Come to the river, rising deep within your soul.
Come to the source of the life that God offers.
Come fill your cup from the cool of the well...

...a place to share your sorrows, a place to sing your song,
a well of tears to wash your wounds, a place you can belong,
a meeting place, a saving grace, a shelter from lost pride,
a well of truth and spirit, too good to be denied. (Refrain)

...a place of heart encounters, trace the pattern of your days,
a well of cleansing laughter to take sins' weight away,
face to face, a healing place, an oasis for the soul,
God's living waters rise, to whet our thirst for being whole. (Refrain)

...a place of transformation, weakness turns to strength,
a well of hope to heal the hurt, all through the journey's length,
a place where strangers turn to friends, and dangers fall away,
God's living waters given, for life's justice, love and praise.
